

Article - Health - General

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)

§7-516.

The administrative head for each State residential center may appoint any employee as a law-enforcement officer and, while the employee holds a special police commission issued by the Governor, the employee may:

- (1) Return an individual with an intellectual disability to the State residential center from which the individual has left without approved leave; and
- (2) Be used to protect individuals or property at the State residential center.

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)